

ESOL Best Practices for Paras

Audience:
Bilingual Paraprofessionals and Teacher Assistants

This 3-hour face-to-face professional development prepares and equips paraprofessionals with tools to support the implementation of effective research-based ESOL instructional strategies to meet the needs of English language Learners (ELLs) using multiple resources. Participants will integrate language and content instruction by building on student's knowledge and experiences to meet academic and language proficiency need, based on the WIDA Can-Do Philosophy.
