

Webinar: English Language Learner Support on Demand

ESOL Supporting ELLs through Remote Learning

Time: 11:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m.

Q: Where can I find translated documents for parents?

A: Translated documents for parents in Spanish, Haitian Creole, and Portuguese can be found on the Learning Never Closes website and on the ESOL Supporting ELLs through Remote Learning Canvas course.

Q: What is the best way to communicate questions pertaining to instructional support for ELLs?

A: Visit the ESOL K-12 Community Yammer group with any questions and suggestions/tips pertaining to curriculum support for ELLs. Any BCPS employee with a Broward email can access the group.

Q: Where can I find distance learning resources for ELLs?

A: The Learning Never Closes and ESOL Supporting ELLs through Remote Learning Canvas course provide resources for supporting ELLs through distance learning.

Q: Where can charter schools find the Canvas course?

A: Charter schools can access the ESOL Supporting ELLs through Remote Learning Canvas course by visiting: <https://browardschools.instructure.com/courses/867005>

Q: How can students and families access Follet Shelf?

A: Students, families, and teachers can access Follet Shelf at <https://www.browardschools.com/learningnevercloses> under the “Bilingual/ESOL Resources” tab. It can also be found on the ESOL Supporting ELLs through Remote Learning Canvas course.

Q: How can students access Immersive Reader?

A: Students can access Immersive Reader through Microsoft Office 365 applications including OneNote and Microsoft Word. To learn more about Immersive Reader, teachers can visit the “Immersive Readers” tab in the ESOL Supporting ELLs through Remote Learning Canvas course.

Q: How do I obtain access to ELlevation InClass?

A: Broward and Charter school teachers may self-register by visiting the link: <https://login.ellevationeducation.com/Registration/SignUp/bcps16>. Broward Teachers will be able to use the ELlevation Inclass icon on single sign-on after completing self-registration. Charter school teachers will have to login to ellevationeducation.com.

Q: Who can I contact about ways to support my ELLs through distance learning across the content areas?

A: For specific questions about curriculum support for ELLs in the various content areas, you may reach out to your school’s ESOL Contact or your school’s assigned district ESOL Instructional Facilitator. If you need assistance in identifying your school’s ESOL contact or district ESOL instructional facilitator, you may reach out to the Bilingual/ESOL Department on the ESOL K-12 Community Yammer group.

Q: Can paraprofessionals be added to teachers’ Canvas courses?

A: Contact the Innovative Learning Department for information regarding adding paraprofessionals to a course.
